

Michael Coco

Michael is the Treasurer of Advanta Corporation. He has held this position since August 2003. In this role, he is responsible for all funding for the company, including all securitization structuring activities. Primarily, this involves the use of business credit cards to create efficient and cost effective funding with minimal levels of risk. In addition to his securitization and other funding activities, Michael is also responsible for whole loan sales, investment management, hedging, and corporate rating agency relations for Advanta.

Michael began his career at Advanta in early 1991, working on parent company funding activities. In late 1991, he moved into the consumer credit card securitization area. From 1998 until the sale or closure of the businesses in 2001, Michael was also responsible for the securitization structuring activities for Advanta's open end and closed end mortgage portfolio and small ticket equipment leasing portfolio. From May 2001 to August 2003, Michael was an assistant treasurer for Advanta.

Michael was graduated magna cum laude with an AB in Economics from Princeton University. He also holds an MBA in Finance from Temple University. Michael is currently based in Advanta's Wilmington, Delaware office.
